

Job vacancy:

Commis Chef

Having taking over the Hotel last year & opening our doors in August after a full refurb, our aim is always to provide customers with the best customer service possible & we are looking for a commis chef to join our team from approx. May 2021 (Depending on the Government road map). We are expecting a busy year ahead so we are taking this opportunity to find the right candidate.

An excellent opportunity for someone who has ambition of becoming a chef & who is eager to learn the art of cooking. Candidates must have a passion for producing fresh home cooked to a high standard and have excellent communicational skills, along with the ability to manage and organise yourself efficiently. Experience is not essential however working in the hospitality industry would be preferred. The option for an apprenticeship is also available within this role.

Job description:

Full Time

Holiday entitlement

Discount on food and drink (on & off shift)

Full training will be provided

Please email your CV & Cover Letter to info@greenheadbrampton.co.uk with a clear indication on the role you are applying for.
